

Quiet Storm Foundation 3rd Annual Black History Month Essay Contest & Appreciation Brunch, hosted by CJ Watson of the Chicago Bulls

You're Invited...

To join us on Sunday, March 11, 2012 as Chicago BULLS point guard C.J. Watson and the Quiet Storm Foundation (QSF) celebrate the winners of the annual Black History Essay Contest, QSF Board members and supporters during a special brunch program in Chicago, IL.

Chicago public schools; Robeson High School, Sumner Elementary Academy, and Nicholson Technology Academy and also three schools from Las Vegas Clark County public school district: Kermit R. Booker Elementary, West Prep Institute, and Wendell P. Williams Elementary will be selected to read their essays and receive awards for their accomplishments. Students will be honored as they show appreciation and gratefulness to the African American leaders who have paved the way for our youth and the progresses we've made.

Registration & Event Info

Sunday, March 11, 2012
Crowne Plaza City Metro Hotel
733 W. Madison Ave., Chicago, IL
11:00a.m. - 1:00p.m.

*Guests will enjoy a lavish brunch, hear motivational words by our Emcee:
Commissioner Lawrence Weekly & Keynote Speaker: Dr. Beverly Mathis and enjoy Live Performances*

Registration Fee is only $50 per person!

Register Online at: www.quietstormfoundation.com

For more information or to register by phone, please call Lindsay M. Miller at 773-750-1391 or email at lindsay@lindsaymillerconsulting.com

Seats are limited, Reserve Yours Today!