Still plenty of adventures at the library

It seems as if there are only a few short weeks left of summer, but there are still many adventures to be had at the library. Here are some of the entertaining programs we have coming up:

At the Central branch:

• Plant Pots: From a plain plant pot and plaster gauze, Jeff Banks will show you how to make a textured and three-dimensional scene that your plant will grow out of on Wednesday, Aug. 4 and Thursday, Aug. 5 from 1 - 2 p.m. The next day, you can paint it. This will make a beautiful addition to your room or a great gift for a friend. (Plant is included.) Cost: $10 for two days. Please register at the Information Desk. For ages six and up.

• Paper Stained Glass Windows:

Jeff Banks is back to demonstrate how to make colourful stained glass windows using black construction paper and brilliant-coloured tissue paper on Wednesday, Aug. 11 from 1 - 2 p.m. Cost: $5. Please register at the Information Desk. For ages six and up.

At the Glen Abbey branch:

• Sssciensational Snake: The snakes are back and ready to slither their stuff on Monday, Aug. 9 from 10:30 - 11:15 a.m. Hold them, touch them, watch them and learn everything you can. No fear factor here! Cost: $6. Pick up tickets. For ages five to 12.

• Family Karaoke: Bring the whole family and raise your singing voices and swing with the songs on Thursday, Aug. 12 from 7 - 8 p.m. Cost: Free, please register. For all ages.

• Arts & Crafts Camp with Jeff Banks: Come prepared to have fun while you create something special to take home from August, 16 - 20, 10:30 - 11:30 a.m. Come for the week or sign up for just one class. Be sure to wear washable, comfortable clothing. Cost: $10 per class or $45 for the entire week. For ages six and up.

Classes are as follows:
