

CONSTITUTION OF THE
SUMMIT PARK HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION

PREAMBLE

The residents of Summit Park in general have chosen to enjoy the pleasures of mountain living. Periodically, problems arise that affect all residents and which can best be solved through community action. For this purpose a homeowners association has been founded to help organize efforts to meet problems as they occur and to limit as much as possible any one individual's commitment. The main objectives of the homeowners association is to maintain the environmental character of our community and react to the desires of the community as a whole.

ARTICLE I

This organization shall be known as the Summit Park Homeowners Association.

ARTICLE II

The objective of this association shall be to protect, preserve, and improve private and public properties in Summit Park, Summit County, State of Utah for the beneficial use of property owners.

ARTICLE III

SECTION I: Membership shall be open to any adult person or persons who own, rent, or lease a home in Summit Park. There shall be a limit of two members from each household.

SECTION II: Associate membership shall be open to any adult person or persons who own property in Summit Park or are interested in Summit Park. The associate membership shall be a nonvoting membership.

SECTION III: The association shall be a non-profit, non-political, non-racial, non-sectarian, non-social organization.

ARTICLE IV

SECTION I: The formal governing body of the association shall consist of not less than seven directors which are elected from homeowners association members in good standing.

SECTION II: The group, hereinafter known as the Board of Directors, shall meet immediately following the annual election and select from their board a President and Vice-President. The President shall appoint a Secretary-Treasurer or a Secretary and Treasurer.

SECTION III: Their term of office shall be for three years, except for the first election. At the first election, two members shall be elected to a one year term, two members shall be elected to a two year term, and three members shall be elected to a three year term.

SECTION IV: An elected member of the Board cannot succeed himself.

ARTICLE V

SECTION I: The President shall call a meeting of the Board of Directors monthly for the transaction of business. Minutes of every meeting, which will also include the voting record of each director, shall be kept. This record shall be available for inspection by any member of the association.

SECTION II: The President shall call for a general membership meeting once during the calendar year.

SECTION III: The President shall call for nominations for directors to be placed on the ballot at least 60 days before the election at which the vacancies will be filled.

SECTION IV: The President shall place on the agenda of the annual general meeting the annual report. Elections will be conducted once a year, occurring within the first 30 days of the year.

SECTION V: Members of the Board of Directors are required to attend all regularly called meetings. Failure to attend two consecutive meetings without notification and just cause, may, at the discretion of the Board, result in suspension from office.

SECTION VI: All Board of Directors meetings shall be open to all members of the association.

ARTICLE VI

SECTION I: This constitution may be amended by a simple majority of members either present or voting by absentee ballot at any general meeting of the association, provided that they have been notified thirty days prior to said meeting at which constitutional changes will be considered.

SECTION II: The By-Laws may be adopted, amended, or repealed at any regular Board meeting by a two-thirds vote of the Directors present.

SUMMIT PARK HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I

SECTION I: The Membership dues of this association shall be $25.00 per year per household, or as submitted by the Board of Directors and approved at the second quarterly general meeting.

SECTION II: The associate membership dues of the association shall be identical to the dues for resident members of the association.

SECTION III: The membership in the association shall be terminated after the dues have been delinquent for twelve months.

SECTION IV, SPECIAL MEETINGS: Special meetings of homeowners association, other than those regulated by statute, may be called at any time by the President, or a majority of the Directors, and must be called by the President upon written request of twenty percent of the homeowners membership. Written notification of such meeting stating the place, the date and hour of the meeting, the purpose or purposes for which it is called shall be given. The notice shall be given to each homeowner member of record in the same manner as notice of the annual meeting. No business other than that specified in the notice of the meeting shall be transacted at any such special meeting.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION I, GENERAL POWERS: The business and affairs of the homeowners association shall be managed by its Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may determine the rules and regulations for the conduct of their meetings and the business affairs of the homeowners association as they deem proper.

SECTION II, MANNER OF ACTING: At all meetings of the Board of Directors, each director shall have one vote. The act of a majority present at a meeting shall decide the act of the Board of Directors, provided a quorum is present.

SECTION III, VACANCIES: A vacancy in the Board of Directors shall be deemed in case of death, resignation, or removal of any Director.

SECTION IV, REMOVALS: Directors may be removed at any time by a majority vote of the general membership. Any vacancy shall be filled by the Directors then, though less than a quorum, to hold office until his successor is trained and qualified.

SECTION V, RESIGNATION: A Director may resign at any time by delivering written notification thereof to the President or Secretary of the Corporation. The resignation shall become effective upon its acceptance by the Board of Directors; however, that if the Board of Directors has not acted thereon within 3 days from the date of its delivery, the resignation shall upon the tenth day be deemed accepted.

SECTION VI, PRESUMPTION OF ASSENT: A Director of the homeowners association who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which action on any homeowners association matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he shall file his written dissent to such action with the person acting as the Secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent to the Secretary of the homeowners association immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a Director who voted in favor of such action.

ARTICLE III OFFICERS

SECTION I, NUMBER: The officers of the association shall be a President and Vice-President, each of whom shall be elected by a majority of the Board of Directors. A Secretary and a Treasurer shall be appointed by the President. Such other officers and assistant officers as may be deemed necessary may be elected or appointed by the Board of Directors. In its discretion, the Board of Directors may leave unfilled for any such period as it may determine any office except those of President and Secretary. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of President.

SECTION II, ELECTION AND TERM OF OFFICE: The officers of the homeowners association to be elected by the Board of Directors shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at the first meeting of the Board of Directors held after each annual election meeting of the homeowners association. If the election of officers shall not be held at such meeting, such election shall be held as soon thereafter as convenient. Each officer shall hold office until his successor shall have been duly elected and shall have qualified or until his death or until he shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

SECTION III, RESIGNATIONS: Any officer may resign at any time by delivering a written resignation either to the President or to the Secretary. Unless otherwise specified therein, such resignation shall take effect upon delivery.

SECTION IV, REMOVAL: Any officer or agent may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the homeowners association will be served thereby. Any such removal shall require a majority vote of the Board of Directors, exclusive of the officer in question if he is also a Director.

SECTION V, VACANCIES: A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, the creation of a new office or otherwise may be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired portion of the term.

SECTION VI, PRESIDENT: The President shall be the chief executive and administrative officer of the homeowners association. He shall preside at all meetings. He shall exercise such duties as customarily pertain to the office of President and shall have general and active supervision over the property, business, and affairs of the homeowners association and over its several officers. He may appoint officers, agents, or employees other than those appointed by the Board of Directors.
